DESCRIPTION

You're a bubble, water is your friend and solid blocks kill you.

Böbl is a platformer based on water physics and exploration. You can activate bells as checkpoints and collect ducks hidden all over the map. Your trip starts in a lost temple. You will move in different rooms, fall in the underground, use pipes, dive deep in the water and go up into the clouds to reach the ending.

Böbl is a short game for NES available as a ROM file. It was made in 1 month for the NESdev compo 2019. Böbl won the 1st place. We invite you to check all the other games of the NESdevcompo 2019.

CONTROLS

Hold A to dive, then release and let buoyancy handle the rest. Let's find all the lost duckies!
